"THE TURQUOISE TRAIL"

Probably the most fascinating, awe-inspiring and perfectly delightful trip in the entire Southwest is Albuquerque's "Turquoise Trail."

Start with a morning visit to the charming shops of Old Town Plaza. Then take U.S. 66 east to State Road 10, for 6.5 miles, turn onto 44 and 'make the grade' to Sandia Crest, elev. 10,678 ft. From the Crest take 44 northwest to U.S. 85, and the famous Santo Domingo Indian Trading Post and Reservation. From Santo Domingo to Coronado's Ruins, then back to Old Town Plaza for dinner that evening — A truly delightful day in "The Land of Enchantment" along "THE TURQUOISE TRAIL."
